

Contents

Foreword	9	Chapter 4
Preface	11	The Royal Maps: a Working Catalogue	78
Chapter 1		Strategic and topographic maps	80
Treasures from a Royal Cupboard	12	1 Muang Thalang	83
Recording and conserving the old maps	14	2 Muang Lakhon/Ko Mak/Thalang-Sai	88
Storing, cataloguing and digitizing the maps	16	3 Muang Thawai	94
A general description of the old maps	19	4 Muang Thawai/Motama/Karaburi Mai	100
Chapter 2		5 Muang Phrataphang	107
Dating the Maps	24	6 Untitled	112
A vital first clue	26	7 Khmen Nai Ni	116
Internal historical evidence	28	8 Southern Isan and Khmer	126
Orthography	31	9 Isan	133
Thai orthography	32	10 Muang Ubon/Phnom Penh	139
The consonants	33	General topographic maps	147
The vowels	36	11 Muang Nakhon Si Thammarat	147
The tone marks	38	12 Phra Akkhanaesorn/Phraya Sangkhalok-Kot	155
Special orthographic characters	38	Ethnographic map	158
Numerals	42	13 Angwa (Attapue)	158
Spelling	42	Trade and coastal maps	165
The style of the maps by Henry Ginsburg	45	14 China	165
Dating the maps: general conclusions	50	15 Muang Kwangtung	185
Chapter 3		16 Muang Nakhon Si Thammarat	191
Cartographic and Historical Reliability	52	Military plan	195
Scale and general reliability	54	17 Muang Saiburi	195
Field and historical testing	59	Conclusions
Khao sung and Wangpor	60	The Maps in the Wider World	199
Lost names and lost landscapes	62	Recommended Further Reading	204
Cartographic characteristics	73	Index	205